Wrap that cellophane around your face
Dont' cover up i want to see
As your existence is erased
What a beautiful gift just for me
Different degrees of defeated plans
Ta the knife from bleeding hands
Fuck the world, i do what i can
Bombs away, lets see where they land
Bombs away
Dont' threaten me with a good fucking time
Don't try and interpret this
You finally got your wish
You finally caught their eye
How proud you must be
And fucking honestly
It makes me sick to see you try
Look what you've become
Just another motherfucker, looking for no one
