Retrace my steps
With no regrets
Rise to my feet only to protect
Choice to reject
And not respect
The life you lead and fight to protect
Last to place the blame
First to fan the flame
Can you hide the shame
As you cut into the vein
Look beyond rising opposition
Light the match
Without a sound
The obligation to which you were bound
Burn it down to the ground
It's possible to change inside
Your fate not yet arrived
It's time to choose your side
You can't win
There's too many of us
No victories
Will come of this
