Pleasant Supper, now, let's gather around.
Look to this day's tears to bring tomorrow's strength.

La La La, A wonderful feeling, Love & Life
La La La, Loveable, Love & Life

To the day that was given our best,
Along with a 'goodbye' and 'thank you',
Let's end it smiling,
That is my small prayer.

When the spring flowers bloom,
and the greenery sprouts, Look, some of the tears are floating away on the wind!

La La La, A wonderful feeling, Love & Life
La La La, Loveable, Love & Life

English Version *from original

Now lets all gather enjoying the company we share our tear's will dissolve into thin air as we drink up this wonderful life
la la la la la la la Takin' in all this sweet love and life
la la la la la la la Drinkin' up all this good love and life
la la la la la la la
Take it in all this sweet love and life....
