If you wanna come down, we're gonna have a black party.

If you fear to hide, i'm gonna take you out

Don't worry about, always feeling rejected,

Let me be the one to hear about your worries,

Let me be the one to lead this time

If you wanna come down, she's gonna throw a black party

If you know the magic word, tell me a secret

If you feel the need to hit rock bottom,

Let me be the one to hear about your sorrow, let me be the one to help you out and if this is not enough nothing is beautiful ahh this is not enough nothing is wonderful, except waking up by your side and if this is not enough nothing is beautiful, no this is not enough nothing is wonderful, unless you are by my side

well this might be enough and nothing's more wonderful than just waking up by your side.
