They say you should know better at your age
A sixties child, so free and wild
Danced go go in a cage
You're a mystery it's true
I think I see myself in you
You're like a character in a Joseph Losey film
Mysterious, yet eloquent and still
You're a rebel, yes it's true
I think I see myself in you
Timothy Leary had a lot to say
I guess you read his bible every day
You're a fool sometimes it's true
I think I see myself in you
You say you hope you grow old quite disgracefully
I hope you always have the time for me
You're a good one, yes it's true
I think I see myself in you.
