Enik :

The flame is melting the wax away
I'm locked in a stare
24 minutes make one day
Am i here or there

The street is filled with horses, riders
There's no single car
All the kings men in front of a neon fortress

Many moons and a single star
I'm lost in one breath
Many moons and a single star
I'm lost

New york becomes paris
And paris turns into rome
Italian girls are dancing
To the symphony
Made of one tone

A little boy with grey hair
Did ask me for a cigarette
I said i can't move
I'm locked in a stare

He stole my heart and he left
Angry and sad
He stole my heart
I'm lost

(i don't know, i don't know what
Cause i don't know, i don't know what)

Bring my heart back
It's the only thing ive got
Bring my heart back
Cause without i'm dancing disconnected
It's the only thing i've got

Bring my heart back

Life is drawing itself
In this eclectic night
I'm walking sleepless
In a painting of dali
I see crying sculptures from bali
I'm chasing an old man in high heels

(i don't know, i don't know what
Cause i don't know, i don't know what)

Bring my heart back
It's the only thing i've got
Bring my heart back
Cause without i'm dancing disconnected
It's the only thing i've got
Bring my heart back

It's beating stronger
Maybe not longer
I found a second one in my chest

Bring my heart back
It's the only thing i've got
Bring my heart back
Bring my heart back

Bring my heart back
Bring my heart back
Disconnected
Bring my heart back
At least apart
Between your red colored nails
