From A Tale of Two Santa's

Neptunian Elves

We are free and clearly sober
With so many toys to build
The machines are kind of tricky
Probably someone will be killed
But we gladly work for nothing

Fry

Which is good because we don't intend to pay

Neptunian Elves

The elves are back to work today
Hooray!
We have just a couple hours
To make several billion gifts
And the labor isn't easy

Leela

Then you'll all work triple shifts
You can make the job go quicker
If you turn up the controls to super speed

Neptunian Elves

It's back to work on Xmas eve
Hooray.

Leela

And though your cold and tired and ugly
Your pride will mask the pain

Fry

Let my happy smile warm your hearts

Neptunian Elf

Theres a toy lodged in my brain
We are getting awfully tired
And we can't work any faster
And we're very very sorry

Bender

Why you selfish little bastards!
Do you want the kids to think
That santas just a crummy empty handed jerk!
Then shut your yaps and back to work!
Now it's very nearly Xmas
And we done the best we could

Fry

These toy soldiers are poorly painted

Leela

And their made from inferior wood

Bender

I should give you all a beating
But i really have to fly

Robot Santa

If I weren't stuck here frozen
I'd harpoon you in the eye

Neptunian Elves

Now it's back into our tenements
To drown ourselves in rye

Leela

You did the best you could i guess
And some of these gorillas are OK

All

HOORAY! (we're adequate!)
The elves have rescued Xmas day
Hooray!
