We drive so far away
And we drive through the night
You and me alone
Far from home
And we drive so fast

And the roads are wet
But you speed like hell
And there's no sign
If you're slowing down
And the fog won't lift
But you just don't care
You just sit and stare
It's an empty glare
And I don't know what's going on
But it's going wrong, in your mind
Your mind

Tears won't stop raining for you
And I know it can't be good for the view
And the final scene comes crashing into
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Your headlights
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Your headlights

Trying to get a word out of you it
Feels like we should not be here right now
I talk to you like I'm not scared
But you don't even answer

And the air is cold
And it chills my blood
I'm completely numb and out of touch
With reality

And the roads are wet
But you speed like hell
And there's no sign
If you're slowing down
And the fog won't lift

But you just don't care
You just sit and stare
It's an empty glare
And I don't know what's going on
But it's going wrong, in your mind
Your mind

Tears won't stop raining for you
And I know it can't be good for the view
And the final scene comes crashing into
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Your headlights
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

Trying to get a word out of you it
Feels like we should not be here right now
I talk to you like I'm not scared
But you don't even answer
You don't even answer - x2
