You can't stand the life that you have lost.
You can't bare the pain that you have caused.
That little girl will haunt you forever.
And the IRS are pounding down your door.
Your loneliness is growing more and more.
That little girl will always be remembered.

And you say "Hey! I did not meanâ€¦
I'm full of remorse." And I say:

(Chorus)

Be careful, for where you put your steps.
They're waiting for you and you're helpless,
they're gonna take you for sure.
Your life is nothing more than hiding.
Chasing your ass around for revenge, so long!
You murderer! They're gonna take you for more than D.U.I.

You blamed fate of making a mistake.
She got hit but you were running late.
You didn't stop. That little girl laid and suffered.
And each day is worth more than the rest.
You can't run they're gaining way to fast.
That little girl will live on forever.

And you say "Hey! I did not meanâ€¦
I'm full of remorse. I'm sorry"

(Chorus)

Be careful, for where you put your steps.
They're waiting for you and you're helpless,
they're gonna take you for sure.
Your life is nothing more than hiding.
Chasing your ass around for revenge, so long!
You murderer! They're gonna take you for more than
D.U.I. (x2)
