Is ? mo cho? gan mise maidin aerach (I regret that on this airy morning)

Amuigh i mB?arra im' sheasamh ar an dtr? (I am not out in B?arra sitting on the beach)

Is guth na n-?an 'o'm tharraing tha na sl?ibhte cois na farraigne (With the voices of birds drawing me over the mountains beside the sea)

Go C?im an Aitinn mar amb?onn mo ghr? (To the Pass of the Furze where my love is)

Is obann aoibhinn aiteasach do l?imfhinn (I would caper about happily, pleasantly)

Do rithfhinn saor ? anabhroid an tl?is (I would run free from doubts and fears)

Do thabharfainn droim le scamallaibh an tsaol seo (I turn my back on the clouds of this life)

D? bhfaighinn mo l?irdhothain d'amharc ar mo chaoimshearc b?n (If I could ever get my fill of looking at my fair sweetheart)

Is ? mo dh?th bheith ceangailte go faonlag (It is my sadness to be bound here in weakness)

Is neart mo chl?ibh d? thachtadh 'nseo sa tsr?id (The power of my spirit suffocated here in the streets)

An fhad t? r?im na habhann agus gaoth ghlan na farraigne (While the rivers flow and the pure sea wind)

Ag glaoch is gairm ar an gcro? seo i m'l?r (Calls and summons the heart within me)

Is milis br?omhar leathanbhog an t-aer ann (The air there is sweet and vigorous and soft)

Is gile ?n ngr?in go farsing ar an mb?n (And bright is the sun that shines on the grasslands)

Is och?n, a r?bhean bhan?il na gcraobhfholt (But alas, oh gentle queen of the curly hair)

Gan sinne araon i measc an aitinn mar do bh?mis tr?th (That we are not together amidst the furze as once we were)
