"Fall Out"

Visit "Fall Out" on MotoLyrics.com

If we have to fall out we should fall out together Because we'll have to find a shelter, and stay in the shelter
The fall was hard, the fall was hard
The out was invisible to you
What a miserable excuse

After days in the dark a light broke through
And it was beautiful to see you
And sit in the warm with you

You're pointing down with your thumb
I can see clearly that you're pointing towards sorrow
But the fingers pointing at me
We're gonna fall out tomorrow
The morning arrives as the night falls down
The shelter is in darkness and the outside is in shock

After days in the dark a light broke through
And it was beautiful to see you
And sit in the warm with you
