When you look too hard you make your vision blurry when you want too much it only makes you worry Just let it come to you the only thing that you can do cause like it or not the night will fall go through the door - don't scale the wall when you think too much you just get more confused if you bitch too much you'll be the next accused Just let it come to you the only thing that you can do love your gift and know it's true You can't confine what's beyond you it's in the earth it's in the air you may not see or feel it there Catch a glimpse - shooting star smiling child strumming guitar

When you try too hard you may forget to feel the love that's all around everything that's real Just let it come to you look deep within you know it's true Rumbling river roll on by sun so sweet cloud so high . . .
