A preacher's daughter with a devil tattoo
Mama's little good girl sniffin that glue
Her box started buzzing ever since she heard the Cr?e
White trash mannequin workin on a scheme
Livin on adrenaline Daddy can't redeem

She turned up the radio
And headed to the show

She needs Rock N Roll (She's begging please)
She needs Rock N Roll
You know she's an underage angel with a dented halo
She needs Rock N Roll
Show Small town girl was a trailer park queen
Headin to the city with her starry-eyed dreams
Fistful of pills and a fashion magazine

She turns up the radio
And heads to the show

(chorus)
