You said that you'd love me forever
I was a fool to believe you I know
'Cause I thought that we would be together
But you promised more than you could show

You said that you would care for me lifetime
That you would love me just as much as I loved you
But today I know that you just told me big lies
'Cause I know that you have other men to.

I gave up my friends for you my darling
I even left my old home town
But now I've had enough and now I'm leaving
Babe, I'm going back to Georgia.

It doesn't really help to say you're sorry
And it's just a little late for regrets
So please, save me the excuses
'Cause I'm just tired and I want to forget

I gave up my friends for you my darling
I even left my old home town
But now I've had enough and now I'm leaving
Babe, I'm going back to Georgia.

I gave up my friends for you my darling
I even left my old home town
But now I've had enough and now I'm leaving
Babe, I'm going back to Georgia.
