"Endless Symphony"

Razing, refraining to cut all the lines on the million stations.
Blind notes, divine strokes, , to crescendo and climbing!
Through.. scenes we got to look out to old dreams,
Live, all this time is still a game.
,we're afraid we'll pay for need,
And die alone and trap inside,

Chorus:
Life is an endless symphony in time!
Life is an endless symphony in time!

..inside yours, ,some of the violence,
Cause I,
And dancing,
Through, scenes, we've got to look out for some dreams,
,we're afraid we'll pay for need,
And die alone and trap inside,

Chorus:
Life is an endless symphony in time!
Life is an endless symphony in time!
Life is an endless symphony!
Life is an endless symphony!
In time!
Life is an endless symphony in time!
Life is an endless symphony in time!
