You came in through a window
In the corner of my mind
Now I can't bear the thought
Of leaving you behind
You're more than just a woman
I was made to be your man

We were destined to touch
We were meant to be
I'll never hurt you
This you've got to believe
I'm standing by should you wanna cry
I'm needing you so
Because your love for me takes me
Where I wanna go

Look in my eyes
Take all my love forever
I can't disguise this heart of mine
Look in my eyes , shining in the night
To be the one who's
Standing in your light

I could wait a lifetime
For a solitary kiss
I just can't lose you know
I know that you exist
Every time you touch me
My body melts
And words can never tell you
What I'm trying to say

For the bond is so strong
It can never break
Inside I know I'll do whatever it takes
Every night I'll be by your side
I'll never let go
The sun will never rise the day
I'm more than just a breath away

Look in my eyes

Take all my love forever
I can't disguise this heart of mine
Look in my eyes , shining in the night
To be the one who's
Standing in your light

I'm never gonna hurt you
You know I'll never hurt you girl
I'll never walk away
I just wanna be now, standing
You know you mean the world to me
I love you more than anything
This is what you mean now
