[Gumz]

I spit the venomous eliksir

Gumz about to be a fixture in the rap game better hide your fucking sister

I blister tracks with mixtures of chemicals

Seven year veteran's gimme props like a General

I'm terrible, melt steel with mainstream appeal

Everything's a handshake, fuck a record deal

Got buckets of that real shit

Hardcore rap battle me with no feeling left on your

Achilles Heel

Putting dudes on injured reserve; a genius in a physical form

You're thinking any less will be fucking absurd

You're lucky with words; I'm fucking you herbs up

Flows like a dictionary about to get served up

Listen when I speak, separate men from the 'lil kids on the mic

And I'm pissing on that weak shit

Spit the street shit from cradle to the grave

My sword killing heads and I'm fatal with the blade

Roar like a Lion; slap you with the iron fist

Here to save the game, better not be trying this

Give my life for this shit 'cause this shit is my life

Getting married is my second 'cause Hip-Hop's my first wife

Unconventional, top ten, you better mention 'em

Coming off the bench, started, said I'm causing tension

Undeniable, flow is like the River Nile

On the beat I'm UPS 'cause I deliver fire

The Mic Specialist; when I spit is like a Terrorist

With his finger on the trigger about to blow the fucking bits

My culmination about to dominate the whole entire nation of civilization

I've been patient and spitting rhymes from the basement

I'm facing the brink; you're breathing life into the lost art basically instinct

It's all about the bling, and how many units you move

How many beef rumors involve you and your crew?
I keep it simple; to me this rap is like a Temple
I ain't religious but I spit the Gods from my mental
I got all the credentials to blow like a 7th grade Chemistry set
I spit that Heavenly shit; I'm like a force in nature
Lost without the pen and paper
Summoned by the law to be the next world savior
The raw flavor, the shit I spit is danger Nas can be the half-man; I'm a hundred percent amazing
WHAT!
