I saw there's a yesterday
She shaved her body for a play
You know she looked so very fine
I just can't get her off my mind.

I saw there's a yesterday
She told me "Everything's okay,
I'm so in love with you today"

There's a asked me to commit
I think that I could go with it
I never thought I'd have a wife
But I could see her in my life.

I saw there's a yesterday
She told me "Everything's okay,
But I'm leaving you today"

The night I climb toward the sky,
Above the city lights I'll fly
How can I live without that girl?
I wanted her inside my world.

I saw Maria yesterday
She asked me up for some cafe
Now I think it's gonna be okay
I think it's gonna be okay
I know it's gonna be okay
