String of pearls, emerald girl
I gave it all and watched it fall, into her world
She makes the time, I take the day
Against my mind and warning signs,
I find my way

Into the ground, into the ground, you and me
Into the ground, we're naive as love

I don't care, if you're unaware of what i do to hold on to you, and keep you there
These country roads, new towns we see
Don't need a fast ride with you by my side
You're driving me

Into the ground, into the ground, you and me
Into the ground, we're naive as love
We're naive as love

Have I jumped the shark?
My co-workers talk and talk
Half-hearted attempts
To save a career and punch the clock
Star-crossed from the start

Still I laugh because, we're naive as love
We're not an idea that you can steer or rise above

Into the ground, into the ground, you and me
(she's driving me) Into the ground
We're naive as love
Not an idea that you can steer or rise above
Into the ground, we're naive as love
We're naive as love

String of pearls, emerald girl
Lost my place no minutes waste
Into her world
