"Fame & Glory"

One, two, three!
I'm chasing the fame, chasing the glory,
What you see now is a story behind a story,
The part that no one before we're getting paid,
The part that we don't like, that we're working all day.
For is so much work, so much time,
Chasing after a dream that many survive,
But damn, why do I continue to try,
Even when the chances are slim and I know that I could fall
At any given moment cause everything I've ever done is ,slowly,
Is the reason why I move on and keep strong,
It's the reason why I hold tight and won't let go,
Why I work all day, stay up all night,
Cause I've got a feeling, it feels so right.
We all try to get it,
But if you come niggers home, you might just forget it.
Only have one chance to,
Dedicate my life to chasing after the fame,
Being the best, you don't know how much I want it,
,everything I ever wanted
Because an average life is boring,
I want so much more!
Hopefully is what life has for me.

Chorus:
She knows I want fame and glory,
I wanna have a day in life,
I wanna be the best around,
I wanna have it all right now!
Cause I want fame and glory,
I wanna be, and hear your voice,
I just wanna be famous, be famous!

You, I'm saying, ,
The melodies in the heart,
All I need is depend on people and I'm ready,
I'm ready to start
You best stay at my, cause I'm ready to go,
My heart is ready to depart, but where did it go,

..
Making , boring, I'm killing every line.
And you know you,famous,
Wanna know what her name is,
Keep trying to get back tonight.
Hopely this fame won't change me,
Because there is no such thing as stopping me
From getting all famous.

Chorus:
She knows I want fame and glory,
I wanna have a day in life,
I wanna be the best around,
I wanna have it all right now!
Cause I want fame and glory,
I wanna be,and hear your voice,
I just wanna be famous, be famous!

I wanna be famous, I wanna be famous,
I wanna be the one that shines through the night,
The one that comes,
That everyone said I couldn't be.
Because I want fame and glory,
I wanna have a day in life,
I wanna be the best around,
I wanna have it all right now!
Cause I want fame and glory,
I wanna be,and hear her voice.
I just wanna be famous, be famous!
