prison walls
outside your cell a bloody tyrant falls no shots were fired
he said you were weak
you turned every
cheek and turned the brute away [Chorus]
one hero
one vision
your word
my religion
no regrets
not hollow
you go and i follow
fear of death
no worry poisoned you
your every breath
love for the moment
no gun can undo the power of truth
the voice alive
today
[Chorus]
my rock. my guide
your book right by my side
your voice, your tone
ill never be alone
