Hide Beneath your lies,
But since I know it's more like hide and seek.
I see right through you;
Your ever-shifting eyes give you away.

[Chorus:]
The lines are drawn,
The ink is black and blue.
The truth is bleeding,
It's bleeding though.
Don't hide what I already know.
I will miss you,
But this is the last time I'll feel it.

It's fiction you are selling.
Your story is pathetic,
It's such a joke and filled with holes,
Like all the things you say.
You might as well admit it,
React before you think it,
There's more at stake then a good time.
All you want to be, it's all you want to be.

[Chorus]

And this wont be forgiven,
And this wont come again.
And this wont be the moment where I cave and let you
in.
And this wont be forgiven,
And this wont come again.
We had so much more than this.
You killed it all with me.

[Chorus]
