[Chorus:]

Sing loud,
Sing loud tonight.
Tomorrow's just another day,
So raise your voice and join me.
Sing loud,
Sing loud tonight.
Tomorrow's just another day,
So raise your voice with me.

[Chorus]

A place for use to meet,
A melody to breathe,
A style to pledge the dance floor to.

Only here the motion never slows,
It's a method to explode

They've taken our movement;
I'm taking it back, I'm taking it back.

[Chorus]

Raise your voice with me...
