[Chorus:]

I'm not the only one
I know what your thinking, now

Honestly, your carefree
Life on weekends is starting to tear us apart
Honestly, why can't we
Leave the nightlife for the lonely
And spend your evening right beside me

And when the drinks go down too fast
You slow down baby
It's time to come clean

[Chorus]

Honestly, think clearly when conscious
Feels unconscious
And black and white perspective
Turns to gray
Honestly, sleep soundly but while you
Fall asleep i'm leaving
So enjoy all the things you're dreaming

And when the drinks go down too fast
You slow down baby
It's time to come clean

[Chorus]

You hate what you don't know
It's just a matter of time for you

[Chorus]
