(justo)
pick it up ya square ya heard what im sayin??

(Game)
its another sad day in hiphop we lost another one of our brothers Justo Faison
we love you and we'll always miss you the mixtape king forever...

(hook)
we'll always love you Justo 4x

(verse 1)
i picked up my pen four years from the day never thought id be rappin, or even signed to Dre i never been to newyork, i had to find a way so i dropped 40 bars on a clue mixtape on a Birdman beat, than my name started buzzin aftermaths young gun and now everybody love him i hooked up with Gavin, Foxy's lil brother he took me to k slay and slay put me on the cover Drama King i shoulda known, cause all of a sudden m.c.'s callin my name and im beefin wit joe budden that beef came and got at him over Colours than cought him at Def Jam, found out it wasnt nottin look back at my career starin out at the city thinkin about the biddin war between Dre and Diddy if i was signed to badboy, would 50 be on the math?? probably not but maybe justo wouldnt have crashed i remember when Funk Flex first heard me flow and Sway let me freestyle on the wakeup show spit over a 100 bars than miss jones started to host thats when they started showing me love on the east coast

than more people found out, i was with Dre and at Bodega's im on 9 outta 10 of da mixtapes im workin on my album and the world cant wait cover of the vibe, and i aint even have a release date than i met justo he told me if i stay hungry id go platinum and nobody can take that from me he joked about my rap beefs, i thouth it was funny gave him a pound than slid him 200 Bars and Runnin went upstairs to change got dinner at five went to houstons and thats the first time i met nas had billboard wit me and two months later he died so this is what it sounds like when thugs cry

(hook)

markin off days on the calendar i cant even sleep like a convict, waitin on janurary 18th when the documentary dropped, it flooded the streets my mixtape buzz made me gold the first week double platinum in two months record lables gettin scared cause the kid from compton sellin like Sunny and Cher mixtape awards came around, glad i was there to get my award, mixtape artist of the year stepped on stage, and Justo let em know you might aswell crown him the new king of the west
a couple of months passed and we aint speak my sidekick went of (JUSTO REST IN PEACE) i let everybody from Snoop to Busta know a car crash just claimed the life of Justo they say the good die young, if ya know like i know live ya life to tha fullest one day we all gotta go
