Oh, I just found out, I've been tripping on the shadows of my doubts
If you backed them up, the way we're taught to hide
A rage that's ripping at me from all sides And I said my sister, my sister twists, and there's nothing I can do
You make me feel so little

If you backed it up, to the times when I Trusted, oh I trusted all the time But nothing that I'll ever do can heal the holes that they bore through Oh lee oh lee infrey in my mind

Brother Sun, Sister Moon, stand beside give me some room

I'm falling down from the sky

You make me feel so little

I don't know why - I lied, I lied
I don't know why - It's dark inside
It could be my pride If someone had watched over me, if someone had protected me
Can someone bring me in out from the cold?

Brother Sun, Sister Moon, stand aside give me some
My Mother Earth, My Father Sky, where do I go when I die? I go east...
