We've been sent,
To issue all you people here a warning.
I'm not at liberty to say,
The details of our most perculiar warning. Yeah.
Sufice to say..All you people here are in grave danger.
So come on!
Through the skies, he flies.
He doesn't know the reason why.
But he flies, so high.
You know that it's true!
Lot of times, when the elders, they smile,
An illusion, an infusion, an intrusion,
An amusement park ride!
Exploding brains!
For miles on to Zanzibar.
To the shores of ye old rustic shinock.
Decimating the competition,
Leaving in their wake, a blind ambition.
Come along children, let's rock, get it on!
In whatever heinous realm that it squats!
In whatever heinous realm that it squats!
In whatever heinous realm that it squats....
That it squats...
That it squats...
That it squats.
