We ride with kings on mighty steeds, across the devil's plain.
We've walked with Jesus and his cross, he did not die in vain, no!
We've run with wolves, we've climbed K2, even stopped a moving train.
We've travelled through space and time my friends, to rock this house again. Rock!
Kyle's fingers be silver. Jack's voice then be gold, but lest you think we're vain.
We know it's a showcase and we don't care.
Tenacious D, we reign! We reign, supreme, oh God!
Burrito supreme, and a chicken supreme, and a cutlass supreme. Supreme, yeah.
Go now Kyle, go now Kyle. Supreme!
