In the night
When you're all alone
If the one that you call your own
Ask yourself if you did it good

Give yourself some positive vibrations
Give yourself some positive vibrations

Velvet skies,
they look down on you and the stars
they will guide you through
On this plain that we all live on

Give yourself some positive vibrations
Give yourself some positive vibrations

Too many wonderers are wondering
Too many ponderers are pondering
Too many squanderers are squandering

All you got to do
Is let that sun come shining through

Give yourself some positive vibrations
Give yourself some positive vibrations

You can do what you want to do
You can call,
you can go where you want to go

Give yourself some positive vibrations
Give yourself some positive vibrations

Too many wonderers are wondering
Too many ponderers are pondering
Too many squanderers are squandering

All you got to do
Is let that sun come shining through

Give yourself some positive vibrations
Give yourself some positive vibrations
