

Gamits, The "Compatible"

I know that we can make this work out.
You never let me come to your house.
You want to move away far from me.
I know you need your space. That's o.k.

We are compatible, [x4].

I think about the day we first met.
Gold earrings and your letter jacket.
If opposites attract I'm falling.
Why do you want me to stop calling?

We are compatible, [x4].

Why won't you give me just one last chance?
I swear I'll throw away my sweatpants.
Don't wanna be with me in public.
Or at all because I make you so sick.

We are compatible, [x8].
