Verse 1

Can't count the times I've tried, to tell myself that I miss you
How can I be just fine, knowing I won't be the one who gets you
Why don't I feel like dying
Why don't I feel like crying for you
Crying for you

Chorus

I should be all, torn up over losin' you
I should be lost looking round for the truth
So why can't I just be sad, even mad
Anything to show me, my hearts workin'
I must be BROKEN

Verse 2

I thought for sure by now, that I'd be lost without you
I must have just shut down, what am I turning into
You think I'd be feelin something
But right now it's doing nothing to me
What's wrong with me?

Chorus

I should be all, torn up over losin' you
I should be lost looking round for the truth
So why can't I just be sad, even mad
Anything to show me, my hearts workin'
I must be BROKEN
