Verse 1

Do you still cut the tops off of your potato chip bags Run into the bedroom and lock the door when you get mad
Still talk like a little girl when you lie Iâ€™ll bet your lip still quivers first before you start to cry
Yeah

Verse 2

I still think about you sometimes
And I wonder where weâ€™d be, if we hadnâ€™t changed our minds
Or if we never met at all or said â€œI Love Youâ€
I keep telling myself only if you knew the truth

Chorus

If this is The Last Song that I ever write Thatâ€™ll be alright by me, cause itâ€™s about you and baby you see
A part of me, will always love you Itâ€™s weâ€™re Jesus and the woman at the well but He might wait for you I wont wait for you no more

Verse 3

Broken rows in the sight of the Father
We had to sale our souls to put out the fire with some water
Rock n Roll and mind control are cool itâ€™s true But nothing compares to feeling I felt when I was with you

Chorus 1x
