Well it's about time you made some sense
You gotta throw down your 10 foot fence
And realize that its time to relax, baby
Came back, put some slack on
Rest till the days are all gone
Keep dreaming about your dreams, baby

Cause its plain to see life is taking over you
It's hard to find some down time
So just stay with Me, fall into My arms again
Everything you need is right here: in My arms

Well I see the hurt in your eyes
Stress made the tears that you've cried
Well that's not what I'm all about, baby
Let Me be the your shoulder to cry
Let Me wipe the tear from your eye
Came back a slacked, relaxed, baby

Cause its plain to see life is taking over you
It's hard to find some down time
So just stay with Me, fall into My arms again
Everything you need is right here: in My arms

Well it's about time you made some sense
