Based on the film of the same name)

There's a ten ton truck

Coming down the road

No matter how fast I drive

No matter where I go

Don't turn back

It keeps coming near

Don't turn back

Don't let it come near

Just when you think you're safe

And you're in control

You see an open road

Not another soul

Don't turn back

It keeps coming near

Don't turn back

It keeps coming near

Can't stop shaking and your blood runs cold

Fuel injection that runs way too slow

Will this killer win and run you off the road

Don't turn back

It keeps coming near

Don't turn back

It keeps coming near
