The view from the mountain
Is the same as the one from the shore
The view from an open window
Is the same as from a closed door

The fabulous sunset
Is a joy to behold
And the chains of perception
Have broken their mold

I wanna be one with
Ev'rythang, ev'rythang, ev'rythang

I look at my sister and at my brother
I see that I'm no more, nor less than another
I see that the rainbow is my family tree
I love every colour and every mother
'Coz everyone is family

I wanna be one with
Ev'rythang, ev'rythang, ev'rythang
