Roll With Me

I laugh so loud that I look like a fool...

You make me frown but I still play it cool...

It puts me down when the hard time comes...

When it comes to love babe i'm second to none.....

I wanna make you feel so good.... a pretty lady like you really should... get down on your knees and pray... for a man like me to come your way

CHORUS:

So I jump start your heart...but love is blind...
I know what you know but he knows too....
You're too afraid to let me know...
Will it disappear or...will you roll with me....
roll with me....roll with me....

Baby Baby why don't you compare....
Is he there and is he fair?
If there is something between you and me...
the right choice well it's in the air

Would you let me come inside? know the secrets only you can hide... After awhile, you will find... You're in love and you can't deny....

(chorus/solo)

Well I jump start your heart... but love is blind...
I know what you know but he knows too...
You're too afraid to let me know...
Will it disappear or will it Grow....
Jump start your heart but love is blind....
love is blind...I know what you know but he knows too...
You're too afraid to let me know....
Will it disappear or will it grow, will it grow, will it grow?
Jump start you're heart but love is blind...
I know what you know but he knows too...

you're too afraid to let me know... Will it disappear or will you roll with me....
