Oh hello.
What's your name?
Where you wanna go?
Don't be ashamed.
Open up,
Like a door;
Empty rooms
To explore.
Hit the lights,
Just right,
For noctornnals it's too bright.
So make it quick,
Candle lit.
It's the way you move.
Snap your fingers, move your legs, and shake your hips
You amaze me,
You blue eyed brunette baby.

She wore leotards and leggings
And a mask for persuading
Anyone who gets in her way.
'Cause I'm speculating
That your speculating
That you'd like a game of soul chasing,
Ready or not I'm embracing
The blueprints that I'm retracing.
I hope you discover a moment that's opportune,
By the way I move.

Oh hello.
What's your name?
Where you wanna go?
Don't be ashamed.
Open up,
Like a door;
Empty rooms
To explore.
Hit the lights,
Just right,
For noctornnals it's too bright.

So make it quick,
Candle lit.
It's the way you move.
Snap your fingers, move your legs, and shake your
hips
You amaze me,
You blue eyed brunette baby.

She liked to sit back, relax, while she lays on the beach;
And drink those drinks with umbrellas as she bathes in
the sun,
As she bathes in the sun, she saw me...
Didn't think she'd have the guts to go up to me.
She turned around then one step, two.
I heard the sound,
I know she wanted to.

Then her eyes locked on mine
You suprised me, you said...

Oh hello.
What's your name?
Where you wanna go?
Don't be ashamed.
Open up,
Like a door;
Empty rooms
To explore.
Hit the lights,
Just right,
For noctornnals it's too bright.
So make it quick,
Candle lit.
It's the way you move.
Snap your fingers, move your legs, and shake your
hips
You amaze me,
You blue eyed brunette baby.
