You were here
And then you left
And now I'm nobody, nobody, nobody
Now they're all just second best
There is nobody, nobody for me, for me, for me
Cause you're in the country
And I'm in the town
You're a bird on the water
I'm a fish on the ground
You cut off a piece of guitar string
I would wear it like it's a wedding ring and
We don't know for sure, but babe you know what I mean
I would wear your wedding ring
You're more than I would ask for
And this is all that I can see
And that jerk last night got what he asked for Yeah you're not really the fighting type, but you could fight for me
So I cut off a piece of my guitar string
Wrap it round your finger like a wedding ring and
We don't say a word, but babe you know what I mean
I would wear your wedding ring
But you're in the country
And I'm in the town
You're a bird on the water
I'm a fish on the ground
So I light a candle for you and I
And I hope you hear me, and you hold on tight
Won't you hold on tight?
So I cut off a piece of guitar string
Wrap it round your finger like a wedding wedding ring
We don't say a word, but babe you know what I mean
I would wear your wedding ring
I cut off a piece of my guitar string...
