By your side, is where I'll stay,
By your side, is where I'll lay.
To kiss your lips, so gentle and pure,
Always and forever, we'll endure.

Stayin' up late on the phone,
Singing you to sleep just to let you know
I'll never leave you no matter what.
When you're in doubt
Just know...

By your side is where you'll find me,
Through the thick and the thin,
Between the love unwinding.
Through the ups and downs,
Through Heaven and Hell,
Know in the end, my baby...
You'll always be my Michelle.
