Well you're a front liner
You put it all on the line
And you're a gambler
You turn lucky every time
Ooh, you're consistent
Hey, and that's good
And you're persistent
Well I am overcome
Well you're not like anyone else
You're not like anyone
You're just an instant flash of light
That shines through the night like a lighthouse
Well you're a victim
Phantom of the opera
And you've been everywhere
And you live in dark shadows
You do what you want to
There's no Beauty and the Beast here
No no no
There's no Beauty and the Beast here
Well you're not like anyone else

You're not like anyone

You're just an instant flash of light

That shines

Well open up the window

And you will hear the rain

Come back to me once more

And throw away the pain

My world will still revolve around you

Listen to the rain

Take time to listen to the rain

Listen to the rain

Take time baby to listen to the rain

Well she didn't know better

Well she didn't know then that the sound that she heard

Well she didn't know

Was the sound of her own door closing

Open up the window

And listen to the rain

Take some time to smell the roses

And you can throw away the pain

My world will still revolve around you

So listen to the rain

Take time baby to listen to the rain

And listen to the rain

Take time and listen to the rain

And listen to the rain

Well take time and listen to the rain

Take time baby a little time baby

Ooh take time honey take a little time honey

Take time to listen to the rain

And listen to the rain
