I'm beside myself

Cause I don't know and you won't tell

Your distant world has somehow pulled me in

It's so surreal

So out of time with you it feels

To give again

But you don't need a thing

Maybe love will change your mind

Maybe this time

Maybe love will change your mind

Maybe this time

A look a touch

Just because I wanted them

To mean so much

You might not feel the same

The day would end

And you'd go back to where you've been

A kiss for luck

I wish you could have stayed

Maybe love will change your mind

Maybe this time

Maybe love will make it clear

Oh, what words would keep you here

Maybe love will reach your heart

Thought I saw it in the dark

Maybe love will change your mind

Maybe this time

You want me to be there

You take me somewhere

You show me your lifeline

Reveal your other side

I would say but the words won't come

I just come undone

All I want to do is to be closer to you

La la la la la La la la la la

Maybe love will change your mind

Maybe this time

Maybe love will make it clear

Oh, what words would keep you here

Maybe love will reach your heart

Thought I saw it in the dark

Maybe love will change your mind

This time Maybe love

Maybe love

Well you want me to be there with you

Well there's nothing more I'd rather do
