"Miss Louisiana"

I've been twice on the highway,
Back to Texas, with heaven behind me,
And it's a shame on our anniversary,
We've nothing left to celebrate.

Darling, I can't replace you.

I have to keep on moving,
Or I get lost in all I'm losing,
I stay, drifting through my head,
With the static you left.

Darling, I can't replace you.
Darling, I can't replace you.

Give me closure,
It's all I want from you.

Darling, I can't replace you.
Darling, I can't replace you,
Can't replace you,
I can't replace you.
