Watching you taking your time
Wasting mine just waiting on you
Misery might keep me hanging around

If you're never gonna let me live this down

Every train I take stops the same place, oh
Right where you are

Oh, it's been a long time but I hear
You don't wander far from lonesome hours at the bar
Call to ask me why I never come around

When are you gonna let me live this down?

Every train I take, stops the same place, oh
Right where you are
Every train I take, stops the same place, oh
Right where you are

I was tired of lying alone for you
So I became a desert to your raining, oh
Finding myself in the sun
Oh, I became a desert to your raining, oh
'Cause I don't want to be the one

Watching you taking your time
Wasting mine just waiting on you
You always keep me hanging around

You're never gonna let me live this down

Every train I take, stops the same place, oh
Right where you are
Every train I take, stops the same place, oh
Right where you are
