"Without Warning"

Visit "Without Warning" on MotoLyrics.com

I see tears falling from your eyes
You are so weak the hope inside your heart dies
You lost your love in this demonic night
Whispering voices say what you did was right

Without warning -- It came into your life
Without warning -- Black Angels fall from the sky
Without warning -- You changed your life
Without warning -- You became the Devil's wife

Shadows of cruelty infected your brain
The dark and mighty God poisoned the blood in your veins
An ocean of blood, you feel warm and wet
The one you love, now he is dead

Without warning -- It came into your life
Without warning -- Black Angels fall from the sky
Without warning -- You changed your life
Without warning -- You became the Devil's wife
