I spent friday night on my own felt down didn't like being alone and i tried making it alright oh, i tried making it alright i went to the market and then i thought i'd catch a movie at 10 and i tried living with sadness oh i tried to like feeling bad

but a bright sunny day
only gets in the way in the way of the games that i play cuz the sun comes and everything is ok...

i bought myself a little black dress i read books to deal with my stress
and i tried making it alright oh i tried thinking that i liked dark clouds and rain all over the place big tears black lines that run down my face and i tried living with sadness

cuz the sun comes and everything is ok...

and when i tire of feeling good i'll think of you when i tire of feeling good
i'll think of you
i'll think of you...

of the games that i play
cuz the sun comes and everything is ok...
