And for tonight
I am alone
and a girl like me
shouldn't have to beg to know what's in your head what's in your head

You're in your head
and a girl like me
shouldn't have to guess no it's not my job
but man I do it best I do it best

I remember a time
when it was easy loving you but now that you're mine man, I dont have a clue

And for tonight
you're my best friend
I draw the line
but don't know when
And for tonight
you're my best friend
I draw the line
but don't know when
the game changed
the game changed

I'm thinking back to happy days
won't you make believe with me that we're the same
that we're the same

I remember a time
when it was easy loving you
but now that you're mine
man, I dont have a clue

And for tonight

you're my best friend
I draw the line
but don't know when
And for tonight
you're my best friend
I draw the line
but don't know when
the game changed
the game changed

Things have changed and we have changed isn't there somewhere a little part of us that's still the same Can't forget those days don't want to let them go got to let them go

And for tonight
I draw the line
but don't know when
And for tonight
I draw the line
but don't know when I thought I knew the rules and then
the game changed
the game changed
the game changed...
