I can feel the change, I can see a time
If only I could find my way to it
If you could walk into the wonderland
Down the hole would you do it
Well everybody is a whore
Everyone's getting sold out
Take a walk in the sun as if you don't know

Well everybody is a winner
Take it out and get your chances
Another one jumps a gun into the fire

You wanted a pill, the curse of lies, you can only simply deliver
To reveal the firefights on the other side of the mirror
Well everybody is a whore
Everyone's getting sold out
Take a walk in the sun as if you don't know

Well everybody is a killer
Well take it all, get your chances
Another one jumps a gun into the fire

I know what it is, I see it clear
If only I could get where I wanted
Down to the city of wishes
Taking all the sins from the wicked
Well everybody is a whore
Every fucker's getting sold out
Take a walk in the sun as if you don't know

Well everybody is a winner
Take it out and get your chances
Another one jumps a gun into the fire
