The moon will go black before you have me again
Welcome to my new obsession

Got a front row seat to the end of the world
You've been in love with the devil
For far too long
Far too long little girl

I sit like patience on a monument
Turning your heart into rock hard cement
My whole world's under investigation
Waiting for discipline to be handed down
From me to you

Sing it

Don't let your life just pass by
Run away with your innocence
And save it for another guy
Don't let your life just pass by
I admit I've been wrong
So why do I, why do I even try

Your heart is so black, but your virgin eyes
The new meaning to the word obsession
I swear, I swear I have a resignation [revelation?]
I'll stop being bad
But I failed to mentionâ€¦

Don't let your life just pass by
Run away with your innocence
And save it for another guy
Don't let your life just pass by
I admit I've been wrong
So why do I even try

Don't let your life pass by
Don't let your life just pass by
Don't let your life pass by
I admit I've been wrong
So why do I, why do I even try

Don't let your life just pass by
Run away with your innocence
And save it for another guy
Don't let your life just pass by
I admit I've been wrong
So why do I even try

Don't let your life pass by
Don't let your life just pass by
Don't let your life pass by
I admit I've been wrong
So why do I, why do I even try
