Never think your gonna get a word in edgewise
Never think your gonna get a grip on my life
That don't mean that I dont really want you
I don't expect for you to know just what I'm feeling On different days the things I say have different meanings
That dont meant that I dont need you to hear me
And sometimes it seems I just need you near me.

I dont know what you been waiting for Leave your baggage at the back door
Embrace everything that you adore
Welcome to planet, welcome to planet me
(Enter your self)
Welcome to planet, welcome to planet me
(Just dont leave)

(Set yourself free)

If you wanna stay you better all be around me
I like it when you're close but dont never crowd me
I got to feel like I'm free I got to know you're with me
I got to look in your eyes and know for me you would die.

There might be life on other planets
If that's what you want then you can have it
But I got love, and I want to share it
I'm inviting you to fly to me.
