"Going Home"

The music's over and the crowd is gone
We really rocked the joint tonight
Get on the bus, head for the road
Watch out for those highway signs
Got a woman waiting down the line
At the brighter side of dawn
Ain't nobody gonna stop us now
Burn the rubber, just keep goin'

We're going home, we're going home, going home

I love my music and the life I live
I guess I'm quite a lucky guy
Sixty shows in sixty days
Too many hellos, too many goodbyes
The boys in the band are happy now
They know we're homeward bound
Got our motor humming and a straight long road
Driver put that hammer down

I love my woman and she loves me
Long distance love for too much time
But I gotta sing and I gotta play
And sometimes leave that girl behind
I feel my heart beat stronger now
Got a fire in my soul
Ain't nobody gonna stop us now
Burn the rubber, just keep goin'
